Who We Are

Blue Ridge Community Bible Church is a non-denominational church plant located in Flint Hill, Virginia, with the primary purpose to glorify God as He continues to build His church.

We are a church that is driven by our desire to share the gospel of Jesus Christ. Additionally, we are committed to the systematic verse by verse exposition of God's Word. We desire to create mature disciples of Jesus Christ who will reproduce and nurture other disciples.

At Blue Ridge, the Bible is at the center of all that we do. We believe that the Bible is the only infallible rule of faith and practice and that it is the very Word of God.

We trust that as we worship Him together and study His Word, that we will exalt Christ for who He is, for what He has done, and for what He continues to do in our lives.

If you are looking for a church, and a group of people who will love and nurture you in loving fellowship, we hope you will consider visiting us this Sunday!

Why Non-Denominational?

We believe that the scripture gives no clear guidance in reference to denominational labels, and that the New Testament churches described in the Bible demonstrate this. With that said, Blue Ridge Community Bible Church is not anti-denominational. We understand that there are many, Christ exalting, biblical churches, that are associated with a denomination. In our efforts to communicate the gospel, we will, and often do team with other like-minded denominational and non-denominational churches alike. Our Statement of Faith is in general alignment with the Southern Baptist Convention's – 2000 Baptist Faith and Message, and the 1689 London Baptist Confession of Faith.

How can I find out more?

Additionally we provide copies of our church's Statement of Faith, as well as our Constitution and Bylaws in the church foyer.
